CONTINUATION OF COMPLAINT:Federico Jose RUIZ-Ruiz*PROBABLE CAUSE STATEMENT

On November 13, 2007 at approximately 7:00 am, Border Patrol Agent Matthew McKinley was performing line watch operations in an area known as Windmill Canyon. Agent McKinley responded to a seismic intrusion device that had been activated in the area. This area is located approximately five miles east of the Otay Mesa Port of Entry in Otay Mesa, California and two miles north of the international boundary with Mexico. Agent McKinley arrived to a location north of the intrusion device when he encountered three subjects hiding in the surrounding brush. Agent McKinley identified himself as a United States Border Patrol Agent and questioned each subject as to their citizenship and nationality. Each subject including one later identified as Federico Jose RUIZ-Ruiz responded "Mexico." Agent McKinley asked each subject if they possessed any immigration documents that would allow them to enter or remain in the United States legally. All three were arrested and transported to the Chula Vista Border Patrol station for processing.

Routine record checks of the defendant revealed a criminal and immigration history. The defendant's record was determined by a comparison of his criminal record and the defendant's current fingerprint card. Official immigration records of the Department of Homeland Security revealed the defendant was previously deported to Mexico on August 31, 2004 through the Port of Entry at San Ysidro, California. These same records show that the defendant has not applied for permission from the Attorney General of the United States or his designated successor, the Secretary of the Department of Homeland Security, to return to the United States after being removed.
